

WHEN TO USE RISE AND WHEN TO USE RAISE

Rise means to get up or go up. Something rises on its own.
Raise means to lift or to grow. Something raises something.

Examples

When the play is ready to begin the curtain rises.
The teacher asked the students to raise their hands.

Raise is a regular verb, rise is irregular. (see past tense)

Present Tense

rise raise

Past Tense

rose raised

Past Tense + Helper

has/have/had risen
has/have/had raised

Read the sentences below. Choose which one of the bold words is correct and write that word on the line. You can use the information above for help.

- _____1) The dough (rises, raises) before it gets baked.
- _____2) (Raise, Rise) the chair up so I can vacuum the carpet.
- _____3) The small child (raised, rose) the spoon up to her mouth.
- _____4) The East Cape is the first place on Earth to see the sun (rise, raise) each morning.
- _____5) My dog (rose, raised) off the couch and ran to the door.
- _____6) The farmer (raises, rises) chickens as well as growing crops.
- _____7) He has (raised, risen) from a very sound sleep.
- _____8) The flame (rose, raised) out of the hot embers.
- _____9) John (raised, rose) the book off his desk to open it.
- _____10) I have (raised, risen) the light switch and turned the light on.
- _____11) The beautiful daffodils (rise, raise) from the wet earth and reach for the sun.
- _____12) The wind (raised, rose) the kite high into the sky.

WHEN TO USE RISE AND WHEN TO USE RAISE ANSWER KEY

Rise means to get up or go up. Something rises on its own.
Raise means to lift or to grow. Something raises something.

Examples

When the play is ready to begin the curtain rises.
The teacher asked the students to raise their hands.

Raise is a regular verb, rise is irregular. (see past tense)

Present Tense	Past Tense	Past Tense + Helper
rise	rose	has/have/had risen
raise	raised	has/have/had raised

Read the sentences below. Choose which one of the bold words is correct and write that word on the line. You can use the information above for help.

- RISES 1) The dough (rises, raises) before it gets baked.
- RAISE 2) (Raise, Rise) the chair up so I can vacuum the carpet.
- RAISED 3) The small child (raised, rose) the spoon up to her mouth.
- RISE 4) The East Cape is the first place on Earth to see the sun (rise, raise) each morning.
- RAISED 5) My dog (rose, raised) off the couch and ran to the door.
- RAISES 6) The farmer (raises, rises) chickens as well as growing crops.
- RISEN 7) He has (raised, risen) from a very sound sleep.
- ROSE 8) The flame (rose, raised) out of the hot embers.
- RAISED 9) John (raised, rose) the book off his desk to open it.
- RAISED 10) I have (raised, risen) the light switch and turned the light on.
- RISE 11) The beautiful daffodils (rise, raise) from the wet earth and reach for the sun.
- RAISED 12) The wind (raised, rose) the kite high into the sky.